

1996 PSBA Hall of Fame Inductees

ROBERT KELLENBERGER (Deceased)

Reading, Pennsylvania

Robert Kellenberger entered the Pennsylvania State Bowling Association Hall of Fame for his outstanding contributions to our Association and the game of bowling.

Bob has been and still is active on the state and local level in our sport. On the state level, Bob has attended the P.S.B.A. convention since 1953 and continues to be an active member of our family. In the 1972 - 1973 season, he served as P.S.B.A. President after going through the Vice President chairs. Bob has served on every committee at one time or another. He is a member of our Advisory Board and attends all Board meetings. Locally, Bob now serves the Reading B.A. as an Advisory Board Life Member. He was the Reading B.A. President and also served as its secretary from 1951 to 1958. He is a member of the Reading Hall of Fame. As a bowler, Bob rolled in the first 20 State Seniors Tournaments and was the 1971 Class B Singles Champion.

JOSEPH NAGY SR.

Coatesville, Pennsylvania

Joseph Nagy entered into the Pennsylvania State Bowling Hall of Fame for his ability in the game of bowling. Joe has bowled in over 35 P.S.B.A. tournaments and over 40 A.B.C. tournaments. Most of his achievements came in the 1950's and 1960's. However, in the 1996 P.S.B.A. Championship tournament in Altoona, he teamed with his son, Joe Jr., and rolled a 1368 scratch total. In 1993, at the age of 75, he compiled a 202 average. He holds championships in various Tournaments all over Eastern and Central Pennsylvania. Far too many to list here. He was the Doubles Champion in the 1987 P.S.B.A. Seniors Tournament. He has rolled at least three 300 games and his list of 700 series are too many to count. He was inducted into the Philadelphia Hall of Fame in 1981 and has been an outstanding bowler over the past 40 years.

JOHN TILL

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

John Till enters the Pennsylvania State Bowling Association Hall of Fame for his outstanding bowling achievements.
