

2004 PSBA Hall of Fame Inductees

PATRICK ANDERSON

Altoona, Pennsylvania

Patrick Anderson enters the Pennsylvania State Bowling Association Hall of Fame for his contributions to the game of bowling.

Patrick bowled in 18 PSBA Tournaments, 14 ABC Tournaments, and innumerable local and regional tournaments. During his 33 years of organized bowling, he had twenty-one 300 games, six 299 games, and one 298 game. High series include eleven 800's (with a high of 835) and more than two hundred fifty 700's. Patrick also holds a year high average of 231.

Patrick holds many titles within the local association including seven team championships, seven doubles championships, two singles championships, and three all events titles. In the PSBA Tournament he bowled a 300 game in 1990 at Plaza Lanes, winning a new Pontiac Sunbird, and placed third in the actual doubles division with Artie Fink in the 1996 PSBA Tournament in Altoona. Patrick also placed first in the team event in the 2000 PSBA Mixed Tournament held in DuBois. His other titles saw him finish ninth out of 501 top amateur bowlers from around the world in the first American Dream Classic held in Elk Grove IL in 1982. He placed second in the Greater Pittsburgh All Star Bowling Tournament defeating future PBA Senior star John Hricsina in head to head match play.

Patrick was inducted into the Altoona District Hall of Fame in 1999, his local association, where he served as President, Secretary, Treasurer, and League Delegate at various times. He was Association Secretary in 2001-2002 and Director from 1993-2001. He served his association as Committee Chairman for its banquet, scholarship and tournament committees for several years.

For his outstanding contributions to the game of bowling, it is a pleasure to induct Patrick Anderson into the Pennsylvania State Bowling Association Hall of Fame.

DON W. SWARTZ

Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania

Don W. Swartz enters the Pennsylvania State Bowling Association Hall of Fame for meritorious service to the game of bowling.

Don was appointed PSBA Area Director in 1977 and went on to serve for 15 years in that capacity. He was Chairman of the Central Area Directors for nine of those years. He was elected fourth Vice President in 1992 and progressed through the chairs serving as State President 1996-1997. He served on the Advisory-Board Life Member from 1997-2000 at which time he was elected PSBA State Secretary, a job he still holds and loves. Don has served on every committee of the PSBA. In addition, he has been very active in his local association (Danville-Bloomsburg-Berwick) having been Association Secretary/Treasurer for thirty-one years. League offices held included President, Vice President, and Secretary for twenty-nine years. For eleven years, Don was Treasurer; League Delegate, and Assistant Tournament Director. He has been the Tournament Director since 1984 and a Certified Lane Inspector. Don was instrumental in bringing the DBBBA Association into the computer world in 1990. In 1992 Don was elected to the Danville-Bloomsburg-Berwick Bowling Association Hall of Fame.

Don bowled three sanctioned 700's with 713 being his high series. His high game was 279. He bowled in 36 Local Association Tournaments, 30 PSBA Tournaments, and 10 ABC Tournaments. He attended 9 ABC Conventions as a delegate and has been a faithful attendee of the PSBA Convention since 1974.

Don says, "If I had to do it all over again, it would be my pleasure."

For his outstanding contributions to the game of bowling, it is a pleasure to induct Don W. Swartz into the Pennsylvania State Bowling Association Hall of Fame.
